From the Bishop:

November 2026

For everything there is a season and a time for every matter under heaven.
Ecc. 3:1

Thank you so much for the opportunity to be on sabbatical this summer/fall. When asked what I was focusing on during my sabbatical, my overall answer was, “less.” I wanted to be less busy, less frenetic, less torn between competing responsibilities. I wanted rest, renewal, and re-connection. I wanted to return following sabbatical with a new understanding of how to be in the office of bishop and also be healthy and whole. Unfortunately, while my weeks away were filled with many things, what I was hoping for did not materialize. Let me explain.

During my sabbatical many joyful family things happened including officiating at my niece’s wedding, a niece having a baby, several birthday celebrations, and my son getting married. Sadly, there was also tragedy: My uncle died, my aunt’s partner died, and my dad died quite unexpectedly. (My son got married on September 5, I left for a trip to Guatemala on September 8, and my dad died on September 11 – while I was in Guatemala.)

Before my dad’s death, the trip to Guatemala was truly a life-changing experience through a tour with Augsburg Center for Global Education. The stories and the new understanding of the country will inform my ministry for many years to come. I was encouraged to see hopeful signs of democracy and entrepreneurship as well as difficulties with farmers dealing with climate change, the poor not receiving what is rightfully theirs, and ongoing corruption. The beauty and resilience of the people along with the gorgeous land will stay with me.

All in all, as I return to my responsibilities, I celebrate the joys, grieve the deaths that have happened, and wish that my sabbatical had truly been “less.”

In the days and weeks to come, I am focusing on listening and learning what occurred in the synod while I was gone, speaking at three different gatherings against Christian Nationalism, gearing up to visit congregations, and continue planning for the good of the synod.

What did I learn/discover in this sabbatical? The fragility of life, family is precious, God is truly present in all things, people are beautiful and resilient, joys and sorrows can be packed together, and we cannot choose what happens on what timeline. Perhaps these are obvious and perhaps I knew them already ... but in this time I am feeling these things more deeply and holding them more closely.

Thank you for the many prayers, cards, and messages I have received from you. I feel surrounded by your care. Thank you for the time of sabbatical.

In Christ,
Bishop Shelley Bryan Wee

Phinney Ridge Lutheran Church member, Chris Megargee, has spent a lifetime following his call as a Christian. That journey has taken him across the country and around the world. Following the thread of his life makes it apparent that God has prepared Chris for such a time as this.

Chris began college at Duke University as an Electrical Engineering student. Feeling the need to deepen his faith life, he took a semester off to live with the Missionaries of Charity Brothers (founded by Mother Theresa), caring for Central American refugee youth in Los Angeles. That experience planted the seeds of his love for Latin America and led him to transfer his schooling to the Catholic University of America in Washington D.C. and to change his major from Engineering to Religion.

While studying in D.C., Chris learned about the injustices perpetrated by U.S.-supported regimes in Central America and about the policies which led people to flee their homes and seek safety in the U.S.—like the refugees he'd served in Los Angeles. A deepening desire to put his faith in action and work for justice after college led him to move to Bolivia and study Hispanic ministry through Maryknoll School of Theology. From Bolivia he went on to El Salvador, where he saw the impact that community radio can have as a tool for social change.

His interest in community radio led to a move to Seattle, enrollment in tech school to study electronics, and then an engineering job at KOMO-TV. He spent ten years at KOMO, during which time he and his wife started and raised their family. In his work as a TV engineer, however, Chris felt like his social change work had been put on a bit of a pause.

A yearning to use his gifts for greater social impact led him to organize “An Evening Against Hate”—a community social change event to address and provide solutions to hate crimes, which took place in October 2001 in the wake of 9/11 at Seattle Center’s McCaw Hall. Working on that project reminded him of how much he felt called to a different vocation. He left behind his broadcast engineering career to embrace a new path in nonprofit fundraising. For over twenty years, he has been raising philanthropic funding for organizations serving people living on the margins, especially in Latin America and with immigrant communities locally.

While Chris loves his Catholic faith, he was uncomfortable with the lack of inclusivity in many parishes. A friend invited him to Phinney Ridge Lutheran Church and from the first day, he, his wife and their two children felt welcomed. The liturgy was surprisingly similar to what he was used to, and he loved the powerful witness of a church that was both Jesus-centered and socially progressive. They felt at home, and Chris now describes himself as a Catholic Christian worshipping in a Lutheran church.

When President Trump was elected in 2024, Chris felt called to more intense involvement with vulnerable folks. Since then, he has spent most of his time in accompaniment work with immigrant community members. He volunteers with the Jewish Coalition for Immigrant Justice, accompanying immigrants to court, to ICE check-ins, and biometrics appointments. He also interprets at monthly asylum clinics organized by Riverton Park United Methodist Church in Tukwila. Some of his most challenging and most rewarding work is with the National Day Labor Organizing Network (NDLON). With NDLON, he organized an Adopt a Corner solidarity group to support immigrant day laborers who seek employment in the parking lot of the Shoreline Home Depot. Active volunteers show up 3 days/week to build relationships with day laborers. They provide a ministry of presence — offering a meal, encouraging folks to hire them, and making sure the laborers know their rights if ICE arrives. Tragically, eight men have been detained by ICE from that parking lot since January.

One of the biggest challenges for Chris is seeing people in power use their power to be heartbreakingly efficient with their cruelty. He finds joy in the relationships he has formed with immigrant neighbors, in being invited to walk alongside folks he would not have met otherwise, in being known as “one of the people helping us,” and in how God is using him to love God’s people. He finds solace in Mother Theresa’s words, “God does not ask me to be successful, but to be faithful.

Recognizing that not everyone can set their job aside and volunteer full time, Chris suggests we all find one thing we CAN do — hire a day laborer, or donate, or translate, and most importantly show up with kindness and love.

To give people a concrete way to help, Chris recently launched the FIRE Campaign: Fueling Immigrant & Refugee Empowerment. FIRE is an emergency fundraising initiative to meet the critical needs of immigrant neighbors by fueling the work of eight frontline immigrant-serving organizations across Washington state. Funds raised by FIRE are unrestricted and distributed equally among the eight organizations. You can learn more about FIRE at firecampaign.org.

Joyfully,
Cindy Shultz NW WA Synod Vice President | veep@lutheransnw.org

SABBATICAL SPEAKERS - SEPTEMBER 2026

Speaker September 6th 2026

Andy Yee - Assistant to the Bishop and Camano Lutheran Church member

Deuteronomy 19 and false testimony

"A single witness is not enough to convict someone of a sin or a crime that may have been committed. Only on the testimony of two or three witnesses should a matter be decided."

Speaker September 13th 2026

Janet St. Clair - Camano Lutheran Church member

Matthew 18:21-35

Forgiven and freed, living inside the wideness of God's mercy.

Speaker September 20th 2026

Natalie Hagglund - Executive Director SCAF Stanwood Area Foundation

Matthew 20:1-16

"When we think of the vineyard owner and the workers, we often think from the perspective of the first worker who thinks he should have received more than those who only worked an hour. It is difficult to understand the perceived injustice. Like a math number, it does not add up."

Speaker September 27th 2026

Kevin Beebe- Executive Director Lutherwood

Colossians 3:12-17

"¹² Therefore, as God's chosen ones, holy and beloved, clothe yourselves with compassion, kindness, humility, meekness, and patience. ¹³ Bear with one another and, if anyone has a complaint against another, forgive each other; just as the Lord has forgiven you, so you also must forgive. "

BENEVOLENCE OF THE MONTH

November 2026

Our Benevolence of the Month for November is prison ministry. As I thought about this, I sensed God's presence in our midst as Jesus explored the question of how do we prepare and ready ourselves for the kingdom of God? In Matthew 25, Jesus taught in parables and metaphor, where the Son of Man gathers the nations together and begins separating them, like sheep and goats being separated by the Shepherd. Who are the righteous, the sheep being called to the Shepherd? And in the retelling of the story, we are called to action.

What are we asked to do?

- Feed the hungry. Check.
- Give a drink to the thirsty. Check.
- Clothe those in need. Check.
- Visit those who are ill or infirm. Check.

Generally, those are the easy ones. And then the Teacher says, "go to those who are in prison." And we pause. Perhaps our inner voice says, "those are the bad guys, not just folks down on their luck or struggling with poverty or sickness." The temptation to judge creeps in. "When did I see you in prison, Jesus? You are obviously one of the good guys." And He answers, "I'm telling you an important truth. Whenever you did this to the least, the forgotten or ignored, you did this for me."

Our congregation has heard that call and stepped up to visit and support those in prison or transitioning out to society. It is a complicated ministry but despite the complications, it is where we are called to be. So, join us this month in a financial contribution to support prison ministry in our community and our Synod.

- Support and love those who are in prison. Check.

Thank you for your support.

Port Towns Church

Dear friends at Camano Lutheran Church,

With sadness, I am writing to let you know that Port Towns Church will be closing at the end of November.

This decision has emerged over the past year as we have faced a significantly reduced budget and considered honestly what it would take to continue. With much thought and prayer, it became clear to me that the added demands of a reduced budget would not be sustainable. Therefore, we have arrived at the difficult conclusion that it is time to bring the church's ministry to a close.

Sharing this news with you carries particular weight because you have been such an important part of my journey as a pastor and church planter. It was at the end of confirmation at Camano Lutheran that I was first encouraged to consider becoming a pastor. Later, a summer internship with you confirmed my calling to pastoral ministry. Since my ordination, you have continued to partner with me in that calling. Your prayers, encouragement, and support have helped shape both who I am as a pastor and the ministry I have been able to do.

As I look back over the life of Port Towns Church, I have much to thank God for. We have seen people come to faith in Jesus Christ. Together, we have learned to serve one another and our community with the heart of Christ, and to walk with him through seasons of hardship and goodness. We have learned that his goodness is not determined by our immediate circumstances—a truth we are still learning to trust as we face this ending.

We have learned to praise him for his provision and to bring our troubles honestly before him in lament: to call upon him to be who he has revealed himself to be—faithful, merciful, and steadfast in love.

You have been part of all of this. Your generosity has helped sustain our life of faith, worship, and service, and your partnership has meant so much to me personally. Thank you for recognizing and nurturing my calling, for sending me into ministry with your encouragement, and for continuing to walk alongside me through the years.

There is much we will miss, and much for which we are thankful. Please keep our congregation in your prayers as we grieve this ending, give thanks for the life we have shared, and discern our next steps. As this chapter closes, I remain deeply grateful for the church that helped me begin this journey and has accompanied me along the way.

With heartfelt thanks,

Danny Edwards-Luce

2027 Spending Guideline

Lord, be with us this November; be with our community as we come together, always mindful that You provide not lifetime bread or yearly bread; but our Daily Bread.

Camano Lutheran Childcare

Play, Learn and Grow Together

October was a fun-filled month with Halloween as the focus. The children celebrated with a Halloween-themed party, dressing up in costumes, trick-or-treating around the church, playing games, participating in fun activities, watching a short movie, and enjoying delicious Halloween-themed treats. Everyone had a wonderful time celebrating together!

Throughout November, the children will explore the meaning of thankfulness as they learn about the people and things they are grateful for. We will incorporate this theme into our daily activities through hands-on learning experiences, crafts, and meaningful conversations.

We will also enjoy a special Childcare Thanksgiving Feast! The classrooms will come together to share lunch featuring some traditional Thanksgiving favorites. This will be a wonderful opportunity for the children to enjoy a meal together and celebrate the spirit of gratitude and community.

Library on Wheels will be visiting us this month. The children will enjoy story time with a visiting librarian, sing songs, and exchange books to bring new reading adventures into our classrooms.

Our Butter Braid fundraiser ends Friday, November 6th! We are raising funds to purchase new nap cots, classroom supplies, and playground equipment.

There is still time to place your order! Order forms are available on the bulletin board, or you can order online using the QR code below. All orders will be delivered to the church on Monday, November 9th.

Please remember that Butter Braids arrive frozen and must be picked up at the church. If you have any questions, please contact Ashli, Childcare Director, at 360-629-2253.

We will be closed Wednesday, November 11th in observance of Veterans Day and on Thursday, November 26th – Friday, November 27th for Thanksgiving.

Order Butter Braids by November 6th online here:

Thank you

Dear Camano Lutheran Church,

Thank you so much for your thoughtful donation of $75.00 on 09/15/2026 to support Lutheran Community Services Northwest's critical mission to bring health, justice and hope to our communities. Hope is the operative word. Your gift aids us in providing life-affirming services to those in need.

We are passionate about helping our clients find opportunities for growth and improvement. We seek to energize them with the tools they need to thrive. LCSNW works with individuals, families and communities to face the future with vision, support and resiliency.

Your generous giving helps us to make this mission a reality. Thank you!

Dear Friends,

As a faithful servant of Christ, you are a blessing to your neighbors around the world. Thank you for your recent gift of $100.00 to Lutheran World Relief given through the Northwest Washington Synod of the ELCA.

People we serve are often surprised that someone across the world cared enough to help them in their time of need. Of course, everyone appreciates a hot meal or warm quilt as they navigate the aftermath of a disaster. But your compassion is what really touches their hearts. After all, it is wonderful to know that you are loved, isn't it?

John chapter 4 says, "We love because he first loved us." I often feel closest to God when I follow him in loving others and making sacrifices for their well-being. I know my cup will not run dry because he loves me, and because your love for your neighbors inspires me. It is an honor to serve alongside you in this mission to end poverty, working in tandem as the hands and feet of Christ ... until your love reaches every neighbor.

With deepest gratitude,

Ambassador Daniel V. Speckhard
