Reflections with Pastor Scott

Easter Continues

It's easy to forget that Easter is more than a one-day event, but a 50 day season in the church year. Actually, it's much more than a 50 day reality as the resurrected Christ is present in our everyday life. Amidst the daily difficulties that come in life and the emotions that go with them, one can forget, if for only a moment, the resurrected Christ walks with us every minute of every day. As I have walked some difficult paths lately with congregation members, community members and grieving the deaths of Joan Vogue, Inez Hushagen and my friend Ron Yarnell, I found the following devotion helpful. It is written by Lilly Lewen and comes from Godspace, a daily devotion I receive. I hope it can be a blessing for you as well.

By Lilly Lewin

I have often wondered about the week after the resurrection.
I have lots of questions.

I wonder and am curious about the reactions of the disciples and the emotions they carried this week. The emotions that the disciples and followers of Jesus had during Good Friday and beyond.

They were exhausted and afraid the day of the Crucifixion. They proved they couldn't stay awake and pray with Jesus in the Garden. Then all but John and the women left Jesus to die on the cross among the jeering crowd and the soldiers rather than with his friends. They couldn't bare to watch...they were scared they would be next.

Only Nicodemus, and Joseph of Arimathea, the tomb giver, and again some of the women were the only ones to see him buried. The Disciples didn't leave the room. After all it was the sabbath day and it was really against the law to travel. They stayed put...except for Thomas.

One of my questions is about the Pharisees. Why did the pharisees and the chief priests believe that Jesus would be raised while his disciples didn't? They asked Herod for a guard on the tomb. They asked Herod because they wanted to be extra careful. They actually remembered what Jesus said about rising from the dead on the third day. Hum ...I never thought of that til this year. Had the Disciples forgotten? Was their disbelief that Jesus was killed too great and it stopped them remembering? Was it their deep grief? Or was it exhaustion that blinded them and made them forget or at least misunderstand? More likely it was deep fear that they would be next and they just couldn't deal with that.

⁶² The next day, the one after Preparation Day, the chief priests and the Pharisees went to Pilate. ⁶³ 'Sir,' they said, 'we remember that while he was still alive that deceiver said, "After three days I will rise again." ⁶⁴ So give the order for the tomb to be made secure until the third day. Otherwise, his disciples may come and steal the body and tell the people that he has been raised from the dead. This last deception will be worse than the first.'

⁶⁵ 'Take a guard,' Pilate answered. 'Go, make the tomb as secure as you know how.' ⁶⁶ So they went and made the tomb secure by putting a seal on the stone and posting the guard. Matthew 27:62-66

I wonder.

I wonder what my exhaustion keeps me from seeing and from remembering? What does my fear blind me to or keep me from remembering?

Continued --->

How often do I forget what Jesus has said and what he has done for me in my life? What are you feeling this week after Easter?

Are you still in the land of Good Friday and the room of extended grief? There is a lot in our world that is frustrating and painful.

This week after Easter saw another mass shooting. Another group of co-workers shot down and killed by a person, a young person, with an automatic rifle. This was in Louisville, KY, just up the road a few hours from Nashville. Kentucky is Tennessee's northern neighbor, so close to home again. This sickens me and makes me want to escape and hide, just like the disciples..escape the conflict on gun control and the lack of will to change in our political system to stop all of this!

But then there is Jesus....resurrected Jesus. Jesus bearing the scars of his agony. Defeating death by sharing in it! And sharing in all our sufferings.

Jesus comes into that stuckness

Into that fear

Into that exhaustion

Into that grief

Jesus walks through the walls they have built and the doors that are shut and says

PEACE BE WITH YOU!

DON'T BE AFRAID!

Mary was not afraid to go to the tomb, but she was shattered once she arrived. Mary came to anoint the body and add more spices. Thinking her friend, her teacher, her Lord has been removed by the enemies, the body lost somewhere, she weeps.

Blinded by grief. She thinks the gardener might know where they've taken Jesus.

But then there is JESUS and Jesus calls her name.

MARY

She is Seen

She is Known

She is greatly loved.

As Mary runs from the tomb..."I HAVE SEEN HIM"

I need to remember that Jesus knows my name too. I need to remember that Jesus can see me in my tears, in my grief, in my stuckness and blindness.

Jesus sees me in the rooms I've locked away.

and JESUS LOVES ME right where I am!

JESUS LOVES ME ANYWAY!

And Jesus calls me by name!

Maybe like me, you need Jesus to call your name today.

Maybe you too need to remember that He loves you so much!

What things are you fearful about today? Give them to Jesus to hold for you.

What things are making you anxious or frustrated? Allow Jesus to have these things.

Imagine Jesus coming into your house to be with you right where you are...

He says to you "PEACE BE WITH YOU"

He shows you his hands and his side.
He isn't afraid of your doubts.
He sits and eats with you and reminds you of his love for you and your calling.
Picture the scene. Allow the love of Jesus to surround you!

To help you remember, Make a list of how you've seen Jesus work in your life in the past.

Consider the people and the places and experiences you've had that you know were God inspired.

Keep adding to your list in the days and weeks ahead.

*Lord Jesus help us see and remember all the wonderful things you've done in our lives.
Help us to know you are with us! In our grief, our pain, in our frustrations and discouragement.
Help us to know you love us right now just as we are
Help us to hear your voice and receive your peace again.
We need your peace and your love now more than ever.
Fill us again with your Holy Spirit. We love you ! AMEN*

While they were still talking about this, Jesus himself stood among them and said to them, 'Peace be with you.'

They were startled and frightened, thinking they saw a ghost. He said to them, 'Why are you troubled, and why do doubts rise in your minds? 3 Look at my hands and my feet. It is I myself! Touch me and see; a ghost does not have flesh and bones, as you see I have.'

⁴⁰ When he had said this, he showed them his hands and feet. ⁴¹ And while they still did not believe it because of joy and amazement, he asked them, 'Do you have anything here to eat?' ⁴² They gave him a piece of broiled fish, ⁴³ and he took it and ate it in their presence.

He said to them, 'This is what I told you while I was still with you: everything must be fulfilled that is written about me in the Law of Moses, the Prophets and the Psalms.'

Then he opened their minds so they could understand the Scriptures. ⁴⁶ He told them, 'This is what is written: the Messiah will suffer and rise from the dead on the third day, ⁴⁷ and repentance for the forgiveness of sins will be preached in his name to all nations, beginning at Jerusalem. ⁴⁸ You are witnesses of these things. ⁴⁹ I am going to send you what my Father has promised; but stay in the city until you have been clothed with power from on high.' LUKE 24:36-49

The Bishop's Article from the May 2023 Edition of The Spirit

From the Bishop:

Some synonyms for GATHERING that I found on the internet include: association, caucus, collection, conclave, conference, congregation, convention, crowd, function, group, mass, meeting, party, throng, acquisition, affair, aggregate, aggregation, band, body, bunch, clambake, company, concentration, concourse, congress, convocation, crush, drove, flock, gain, heap, herd, horde, huddle, junction, knot, levy, meet, muster, parley, pile, rally, roundup, society, stock, stockpile, swarm, turnout, union, get-together, social function.

Some of these GATHERING words sound positive to my ears (group, party, social function), some sound political or corporate (caucus, acquisition, convention, meeting), some sound a little scary (crush, drove, horde, swarm) and one just makes me smile (clambake). How is a clambake like a GATHERING? I'd love to hear your answer!

We are excited that this year we are having two GATHERINGS. As a congregation, you are welcome to choose either May 13 or May 20 to GATHER with people throughout the synod. While there is no limit on the number of people who may attend from your congregation, we do have to cap registration at 300 each Saturday, so we hope that you are coming and that you are already registered as you read this! Here is the link for more information <https://www.lutheransnw.org/events/synod-gatherings/2023-05-13>.

At these two GATHERINGS we will have ample opportunity to learn together, laugh together, share information together, collaborate together, sing and play together, eat together, engage in possibility and vision-thinking together, pray together, plan together, and, especially to GATHER together in the Spirit of Christ.

For too long we have tried to do things alone. For too long we have tried to figure things out on our own. For too long we have not looked to others for collaboration and community. But Ecclesiastes 4:9 reminds us, "Two are better than one, because they have a good reward for their toil. For if they fall, one will lift up the other; but woe to one who is alone and falls and does not have another to help."

These last few years have shown us that there is nothing better than GATHERING with the body of Christ, especially in-person. We are excited for all of us in our synod to come together as we share our God-given gifts and wisdom. We are excited for the knowledge that will be shared and, even more, the Spirit of hope, generosity, and anticipation for what is next.

We are excited to see you and your congregation at one of the GATHERINGS this year. We can't wait to GATHER together with you on May 13 or May 20 and into the future!

MARCH 2023 CLC PROPERTY TEAM ACCOMPLISHMENTS

1. Sink drain cleaned in ladies toilet in Child Care.
2. Pressure washed sidewalks (removed mold and grime) adjacent to the Office doors and out to the parking lot.
3. Changed fluorescent lights in hallway near Office.
4. Full time mowing for entire field areas started.
5. The door closure mechanism on the most used office entrance door failed. The adjacent (seldom used) door closure was used to replace it, and the failed unit was sent to a firm in Florida for possible repair or replacement. A new equivalent unit would be over $600 and a repair of the existing one is $310. Repair is pending.
6. The "Burn Pile" in the NW field has been accumulating yard waste, branches, tree limbs, grasses and more and the time had come for disposal. A burning permit was obtained and water hoses were linked from the Fellowship Hall to the burn site to comply with the requirement for charged hoses. A full time attendant was required for monitoring the fire. A forecast for calm winds (< 7 mph) provided the opening for ignition and a full burn with little smoke. This took most of the day (3/28/23) to reduce the pile and ensure there were no remaining hot spots.
7. A live evergreen tree, used during an earlier Christmas service, was moved from a temporary holding site and planted in the lawn area by the Preschool and office.
8. Small ants reappeared in the large sanctuary and a non hazardous pesticide was applied judiciously.
9. The large trees adjacent to the north sheds had significant wind damage and were hazardous. Limbs and parts of trunks were removed.

"Not to brag, but I just went into the other room and actually remembered why I went in there!
It was the bathroom, but still..."

BENEVOLENCE OF THE MONTH

May 2023

Mission Aviation

Help bring the love of Christ to isolated people

People living in isolation are cut off from the outside world, with little to no access to health care, education, supplies, and the hope of the gospel. Our airplanes are the only way many people living in remote jungles, deserts, and mountains have access to life-giving necessities and the love of Christ. You can help us—and the hundreds of churches, missionaries, and organizations we serve—bring help, hope, and healing to the ends of the earth.

SERVICE LOCATIONS

MAF-US service locations exist in 12 countries—changing the ending for isolated people by sharing Christ’s love through aviation. MAF uses aviation to overcome geographic, political and religious barriers, so that lives can be transformed through medical care, educational opportunities, clean water, community development, and the gospel of Jesus Christ. MAF-US also serves in five restricted access nations not listed below.

We personal support Bryan and Mary Engabroad who serve in Lesotho, South Africa and David Perkins our IT specialist who serves in a remote area in Alaska.

CAMANO LUTHERAN CEMETERY INVITATION

YOU ARE INVITED

Dedication Service for Columbarium Center
In honor of
Allen Gilbertson

Saturday, May 20, 2023
11:00 a.m.

Camano Lutheran Cemetery

You are invited to attend a dedication service for Camano Lutheran Cemetery's new Columbarium Center on Saturday, May 20 at 11:00 am. We will be honoring Allen Gilbertson's over 50 years of service to the cemetery and the community.

The cemetery is located about one mile south of Terry's Corner on NE Camano Drive.

Allen Gilbertson Remembrance

by Connie & Alan Hall

Allen Gilbertson devoted more than fifty years to Camano Lutheran Cemetery. Fifty years is an incredible amount of time when you realize that in the 1970s, the Seattle SuperSonics battled the Bulls, Jaws was a favorite movie, Hitch-hikers Guide to the Galaxy a bestseller, and Happy Days a popular TV show. We used phones with cords (usually one per house) and no one we knew owned a personal computer.

It is impressive that Allen Gilbertson dedicated fifty years to the Camano Lutheran Cemetery but that is not what makes his devotion so remarkable. It is the fact that every day, every single day (unless he was hunting), Allen tended to the cemetery. He not only did not miss a day, he could be seen at the cemetery two, three or more times a day. In the 1980s and '90s he shouldered almost complete responsibility for the cemetery. In his last fifteen years, Allen also visited Gilbertson Funeral home every day checking in on his good friend, David Brandt, sharing the latest news in Stanwood.

And what did Allen do all these hours, each and every day? He checked on the general condition and needs of the cemetery. He arranged, supervised and paid grounds care workers. He met with people and showed them possible grave sites, marked graves, communicated with the cooperating funeral homes, kept the cemetery records, oversaw cemetery meetings, and maintained the financial records. He listened to those with complaints and accommodated those with special requests as he was able. Whatever needed to be done, Allen did it.

An example of his diligence was once he was trying to top a tree and the trunk split and sent his body flying 35 feet, snapping his femur in two places. Later, upon hearing that a tricky grave was being dug which might impinge on a burial site next to it, Allen insisted, wheelchair and all, on sitting next to the open grave. He oversaw and supervised while the diggers did their work to make sure the grave was dug correctly.

But what Allen really did best was to keep the stories of those who were buried there. Our entrance sign reads, "... buried here are many of the original pioneers and Camano Island community members." Allen knew those people and knew their stories and often their secrets. Lucky was the person spending the day with Allen at the cemetery listening to fascinating tales of yesteryear.

They say an animal, instinctively, knows the measure of a man. We can say for certain that our Australian Shepherd, Auggie, thought that Allen was the most wonderful person in the world. She would wait each morning for him to arrive on our porch for the morning cemetery update, and would jump, and bark, and twirl and smile as he approached. He always had a good word, a warm pat and a friendly smile and always a special treat for her. Auggie thought Allen was beautiful. Allen was a kind man and a friend, and he is very much missed. It is important that we dedicate this new site in Allen Gilbertson's memory, for he made a difference, and we should never forget his story.

GATHERING PLACE VOLUNTEER DATES

CAN YOU HELP with GATHERING PLACE?

Below are the remaining 2023 dates for Camano Lutheran Church to prepare, cook and serve a meal at The Gathering Place  Our Savior's Lutheran Church, Stanwood

Thursday, June 1 * Thursday, August 10 * Thursday, December 7

Meal prep begins @ 3:30, Doors open @ 4:30, Serving begins @ 5:00, Cleanup @ 6:00.

We try to have 6 people maximum in the kitchen at any one time. It's not necessary for you to be present the entire time, but if you'd like to come and help, please call Susann E. Hendrickson 425-330-3702 a few days before so she can plan accordingly.

PASS THE WORD AROUND THE COMMUNITY! TOTALLY free program has been open to anyone who would like to eat a nutritious meal, have lively conversation and meet new people.

The CLC Quilters would like to send out a big thank you to everyone who has supported our quilts and kits mission. It takes a tremendous amount of time and energy to make them all come together. Everything that goes into making the quilts and kits comes from donations. Your continued support is greatly appreciated. One item we are always in need of is 4 oz. bars of soap as it requires two bars of soap for each personal care kit and baby care kit. If you ever see 4 oz. bars of soap on sale, pick us up a few. Thanks!

thank you

Dear Camano Lutheran,

Thank you for your Benevolence of the month donation to Safe Harbor Free Clinic.

Our patients continue to be so grateful for the opportunity to receive the healthcare they need. We have had a large increase in new patients, which has reminded us that without the generosity of our donors and the Church support we receive, we would not be here to meet their needs.

Thank you for the life changing gift to Safe Harbor. You are impacting so many lives who have no other access to healthcare.

Dear Scott,

We were so grateful to receive your donation of $100 on March 21, 2023. Thank you! Your contribution is vital to our work. You're helping households like Hannah's.

"This period of help from Housing Hope was life-changing for my family. Housing Hope created a safe environment for us to work through the trauma we had experienced to become healthy. As a result, we have changed the way we eat, and we have structure in our schedules... I know my son will always be living with me (he has autism), and I am focused on making a better future for both of us. I am thankful to Housing Hope, my family support coach, and people who give funding to support the program I'm in for their ongoing support and blessings."

Because of donors like you, participants like Hannah have a safe space to call home. Your donation helps provide the programs that Hannah and her son have accessed while living at Housing Hope.

We are incredibly thankful for you and your support and look forward to sharing more in the coming months! If you have any questions, give us a call at 425-347-6556.

Sincerely,

Nate Greenland

Dear Friends,

Thank you for your recent gift of $398.00 to Lutheran World Relief given through the Northwest Washington Synod of the ELCA. I'd like to share a story with you about how your support makes a real difference.

Guisela is a single mother living with her two daughters in the remote hills of western Guatemala. Without a regular source of income or the knowledge to work the dry, lifeless land, she struggled to provide a daily meal for her children. She made long daily treks to fetch clean water for her family, hauling heavy containers back up steep terrain to her home. This time-consuming effort left little time for gardening, and with little farming know-how, she often paid the high cost of transportation to buy vegetables for her children at the nearest market. Since job prospects for women in this area are few and far between, earning money was difficult. The cycle of poverty seemed impossible for Guisela to break.

But your love changed everything. Your generosity is delivering seeds, tools and mentorship. Because of you, Guisela has learned to farm and now has an abundance of healthy and nutritious food to offer her growing children.

Thank you for your generosity! We are proud to carry your love — and God's love — to the places it's needed most... until your love reaches every neighbor.

Warm Regards,

Daniel Speckhard
